COUNT ONE: TITLE VII-RETALIATION

39.

Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint.

40.

Defendants engaged in retaliation by Terminating Plaintiff for filing inter alia, a Complaint with Norfolk Southern EEO and Ethics and Compliance and The EEOC about Discrimination for Inconsistent Discipline among women especially African American Women and Men and thereby engaged in a protected activity and opposing illegal activity. Any claims of discipline for cause is a pretext to hide the retaliatory motive. The Defendants treated the Plaintiff differently from similarly situated employees. The Defendant further subjected the Plaintiff's work performance to heightened scrutiny after she engaged in the protected activity.

Plaintiff furnished a list of 16 affected men and women to EEO and Ethics and Compliance and The EEOC.

41.

Plaintiff shows that the Defendants terminated Plaintiff on April 4, 2008. Plaintiff had filed a complaint with EEO of Norfolk Southern on March 20, 2008, alleging Discrimination for inconsistent discipline among women especially African American women and men. Plaintiff shows that her termination was 14 days after filing said complaint.

45.

Plaintiff, having filed this action within ninety (90) days after receipt of that Notice, has fulfilled all statutory prerequisites to filing this action.

Defendants' retaliatory conduct, in violation of Title VII, caused Plaintiff to suffer a loss of pay, benefits, and prestige.

46.

Defendants intentional and illegal conduct and further that the retaliation constitutes a practice undertaken with malice or with reckless indifference to the federally protected rights of an aggrieved individual, which actions caused Plaintiff to suffer mental and emotional distress entitling her to compensatory and punitive damages.

47.

Plaintiff further shows that defendants terminated Plaintiff on October 16, 2010. This was less than 90 days from the EEOC determination and right to sue letter.

48.

Plaintiff has shown that the adverse action of being terminated because of the protected activity of filing complaints concerning Inconsistent discipline against women mainly African American women and Joshua K. Massey is the causal connection since he is the person who imposed the majority of the discipline.

49.

51.

Defendants engaged in unlawful sex discrimination by failing to take action on Plaintiff's complaint that white males are not disciplined on the same level as women.

55.

Defendants retaliatory conduct, in violation of Title VII, caused Plaintiff to suffer a loss of pay, benefits, and prestige.

56.

COUNT THREE: SECTION 1981-RACE DISCRIMINATION

58.

Defendants have engaged in intentional race and age discrimination in the terms and conditions of Plaintiff's employment, including but not limited to discipline and her termination.

59.

Defendants conduct violates 42 U.S.C Sec 1981. Defendants are "employers" engaged in an industry affecting commerce as defined by 42 U.S.C. Sec. 2000e(b).
